

by Windows Live

News About the ARTS in the Southern Crescent

From: Southside ARTS Agenda (southsideartsagenda@comcast.net)

Sent: Mon 3/03/08 7:08 AM

To: maria.pia.ugarte@voicesonline.org

the Southside ARTS Agenda

Volume 3 Issue 10
March 3, 2008

Join Our Mailing List!

Visit Our Sponsor

Dear Pia,

Good Morning! Welcome to this week's edition of the Southside ARTS Agenda.

Congratulations to VOICES for the outstanding job they did as they manned the phone bank at Atlanta's Georgia Public Television channel 30 Saturday night! They received plenty of name recognition from the hosts as well as lots of exposure to their logo and slogan. In our memory, it's the first time a Southside arts organization lent their support to Georgia Public Television as volunteers and it shows VOICES commitment to become a leader in the ARTS in the Southern Crescent.

Visit Our Sponsor

The show GPT used to draw attention to the need for public financial support of our local Public Broadcasting Stations, Celtic Thunder, was well worth the time to view. They are an outstanding group of 5 men who offered a variety of songs; everything from Celtic battle songs to favorites like "They Call it Puppy Love" sung by a 14 year old with a voice way beyond his years. Celtic Thunder will be appearing at the Atlanta Civic Center on November 15 and while our purpose is to promote arts events on the Southside, this is one event we suggest you will want to attend. They are inspiring!

Click the icon below to jump to this week's e-magazine's cover. From there you can link to all or any of the pages in this week's issue.

Want to jump immediately to a particular page? Scroll down and click on the logo in the upper right corner.

So, what are you waiting for! Click the image to view this week's new SOUTHSIDE ARTS AGENDA!