The Voices Benefit Concert

Zaphyra

Another creative aspect that has become a characteristic of the Voices concerts is the wardrobe. David's Bridal in Morrow has supported this effort this year. "People have really enjoyed the visual and sophisticated nature of the performances and costumes," said Ugarte. Zaphyra's wardrobe has been a key component and received many compliments last year. David's Bridal has responded very enthusiastically to being a part of Voices. "But expect surprises, as the dresses will most definitely have the Voices touch!"

This first concert - as well as the two following events - will help fund the full scale production in 2009. This initial, more intimate performance will be taking place at The Wadsworth in Newnan (25 Jefferson Street.) The 1930's Art Deco landmark - listed on the National Register of Historic Places - was designed by noted Georgia architect R. Kennon Perry. "I learned of it through my friend and artistic colleague, writer Jeanne Chambers, one the founders of The Twilight Theater. I was very surprised that I had not heard of this place before. It is certainly worth a trip just to come and see this magnificent building, which has been recently restored." Gene Surber, award-winning historic architect, served as the consultant for its rehabilitation. "Rein Pirm, who designed the acoustics for Spivey Hall at Clayton College and State University in Morrow, developed the acoustical plan."

Presale tickets are available at the Voices website, www.VoicesOnline.org. Tickets are also available for purchase at Scott's Bookstore, 28 S Court Sq, Newnan. Doors open at 7:00 pm, with the performance starting at 7:30 pm. A petite silent auction will take place before the concert and during intermission. A Meet & Greet Reception will take place after the concert. Please visit the Voices website for continued updates and information about this and upcoming events.
